

Kathmandu Valley Day Tour

Facts

Destination: Nepal

Trip Difficulty: Easy

Trip Style: Tour

Transport: Private Vehicle

Food: Lunch

Kathmandu Valley Day Tour takes you to many UNESCO World Heritage Sites. During the tour, you will explore

You will be guided by our professional tour guide who will introduce all of the sites to you. We have designed our

Swayambhunath Stupa

Swayambhunath Stupa is also popularly known as the Monkey Temple, which is believed to date back to 460 A.D.

One of the many legends says that this stupa evolved spontaneously out of primordial lake more than 2000 years ago.

Pashupatinath Temple

Pashupatinath Temple is one of the sacred and most important religious sites for Hindus. Pashupatinath Temple is

The premises include the main temple dedicated to Lord Shiva, where non-Hindus are not allowed to enter and

Boudhnath Stupa

Boudhnath Stupa is Nepal's biggest stupa situated 8 km east of Kathmandu. The 36 meters high stupa can be seen from

The most interesting thing about Boudhnath Stupa is that it is set on the ancient trade route to Tibet. On each side of the

Basantapur Durbar Square

Basantapur Durbar Square is also known as Kathmandu Durbar Square is the old royal palace of the former king.

Bhaktapur Durbar Square and Patan Durbar Square

Bhaktapur Durbar Square is the best way to travel back in time because of the old buildings and lifestyle of the city.

Patan Durbar Square is an old royal palace that houses centuries-old palaces, temples, shrines, and courtyards.

Narayanhiti Palace Museum

Narayanhiti Palace Museum once served as a residence for several prime ministers of Nepal for decades. In 2001,

This is the palace, where the Nepalese Royal Massacre took place in 2001. In the 2006 revolution, the monarchy was abolished.

Highlights

- Visit the holy Pashupatinath Temple
- Climb several steep stone steps to reach the Monkey Temple
- Circumambulate around Boudhanath Stupa and feel the divine essence of Buddhism in the air
- Explore the three durbar squares- Kathmandu Durbar Square, Bhaktapur Durbar Square, and Patan Durbar Square
- Visit Narayanhiti Palace Museum
- Get to know art, architecture, and history of Nepal
- Learn the culture and tradition of Nepali people
- Explore the local market and do shopping